Nazarene Church Presents Bible To Mayor Isen

"We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to you and the City of Torrance," said the Rev. Charles W. Little, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene when presenting a Bible to Mayor Albert Isen during services at the church last Sunday.

"For the consideration and courtesy extended to the churches and ministers of our community, the All-American city at Memphis, Tennessee.

Mayor Isen, at the invitation of Rev. Little, delivered the same speech he made when Torrance was awarded the title of loving... it is religious. I tried to keep it this way, and I shall try to do so."

"As you have presented the keys to the city to many famous personages," said the Rev. Little, "may we present this bible as the key to heaven."
